

CAMP CHEVRA YEARBOOK 2020

TESTING, TESTING 123

By: Rabbi Sherman

As a microphone my main job in camp is to make sure everyone hears what's going on in camp. This is a very important job because without me Rabbi Sherman would have to scream even louder and that could be harmful to his voice. About two months ago I was sitting in some old storage closet with all the other camp stuff. My family, the speakers and the cords were all tangled in a big fight that my twin brother was taking no part in. The 2019 trophies were laying around grumping about how they are now useless and the volleyball net was all scared about being replaced this year. It was a warm day in June when all of a sudden the doors were thrown open and there stood two mexican workers and Rabbi Sherman. We were all hoisted onto this big truck and pushed all the way to the back. The fridges were very upset about being thrown around and the new tents were bragging about being from walmart. There are a bunch of new things with us in the truck this year. They're sanitizing stuff and masks along with boxes of gloves and soap. I heard all about this pandemic thing from the locker next to me filled with hospital gowns. It was very busy next door the last few months and I'm sure all this new stuff in camp has to do with this covid thing. Finally its home sweet home, I was back in Chevra!! Wait where are we?? This isn't summit park? Where is Eitan Hagler? Where are those wooden back stops? Wow this building is huge. This gym is gorgeous. This dining room is so big I'm going to have to work extra hard here. As I get unloaded into the air-conditioned office I meet up once again with the video guy Eli smith. We'll spend an awful lot of time together as it seems every time I'm brought here he's here leaning against my buddy the copy machine. It's day one and the boys are coming in. Why is no one using me? Wait why is everyone going to the field? Who's that guy Charles or is it Chucky or just Chuck? Why is he walking around on the first day? Oh here the boys come and finally after waiting for so long Camp Chevra 2020 is up and running. Rabbi Sherman's first words to camp while holding me is not hello or welcome but OOOOKKKAAYYY!! This seems to happen more then Asher Vaxman is called out for dismissal which is a lot. As always Rabbi Sherman is so busy stuffing pizza in his mouth the first day he can barely talk with me. This year there are so many boys here and the ruach is just crazy. The first week we are doing candy crush!! There is so much candy all over I can see Reuven counting it all up. Rabbi Peikes bought some competition this year with these two wheely fancy speaker microphone things, but they didn't last long as I could have told you. Don't mess. Speaking of things that didn't really last were those tents you guys were under counting your candy. One visit from the wolf and that was it. We should have listened to the third pig. It's already the end of the first week and I'm left all alone here in the office. You would be surprised how much fun we have when you guys leave for shabbos. The first aid kit and the walkie talkies throw a great party. Problem is every day of camp more and more things keep getting invited to the party. Once or twice I heard about this guy Chucky or is it Charles, and things got sent home but it was a never ending battle with crowd control. Rabbi Sherman is trying to get rid of the scratch offs really fast but they're still hanging around here. The second week brought Bingo and all these prizes. There was also the two minute scavenger hunt led by Shalom Kut and Zeshe. Thanks for finding everything in two minutes and ending the activity at 3:17. Now Rabbi Sherman has me back out and my break was short lived. Did I just announce that correctly? Did he just say thousands of rubber bands? That's right it's rubber band day and the Kuts are at it again. We're taking bets who snaps first, bunk Levis rubber band string or Ari Goldstein? After the fast day it was time for the third week of camp already. This was started off with some wacky races. Yes there were buckets, cups and fun races but most people remembered the cable ties and band aids. Rabbi Sherman is now explaining a really fun activity called picture hunt. I'm watching all the campers and staff run around like crazy as they take pictures of everything just nuts. Later in the same week I was deeply insulted. Rabbi Peikes brought the new competitors to the auditorium for lets make a deal. He must have thought I wasn't good enough or maybe it's just soooo impractical to bring my twin and the family all the way down the hall. Anyway I was brought along because I'm wireless and the other guys aren't and I was able to witness the amazing and some not so amazing prizes being given out. We ended the third week with deal or no deal which I overheard Menachem Rosenberg saying we still owed slurpees for. Wow another crazy weekend party with the brand new dodgeballs and the staple gun ouch not a shidduch!! If you were wondering why the balls were all deflated that's your answer. Now for some reason I'm being passed around alot and it has something to do with Olympics. A Lot of singing and plays and more than once me being knocked to the ground. Rabbi Sherman has sworn to protect us but he has been slacking off lately. Week five started off the new half and it started with an amazing payday. So many bunks got such great prizes. Extreme A got a BBQ and extreme B with the pizza and Rosen getting mike and ikes...the list goes on and on. This was followed by cake bake which is one of my favorite activities. That's because I don't have to work so hard and it's pretty simple. Just come up, look at the cake, and then eat the cake. Not any screaming or dropping or turning on and off or anything like that. One of my busiest times of the year was on the Wednesday of this week when we had the cantata. By plays I'm really important and who could forget the tear jerking scenes from the cantata. Everyone was able to hear loud and clear how Weinstein told that boy Yurowitz that he won't walk and yada yada yada I did a fantastic job. Couldn't have done it without me I know. Starting Friday my cousins the speakers get to work with all the music playing and they did their job well with musical chairs. This next week of camp is a very lonely one. I wake up Monday and everything and everyone is moving about. Like Naftali Weinstein, trip days are my day off. I just get left in camp as everyone goes out to have a blast. From sitting in the office I heard all about this place Thrillz. It seems to have been an amazing time with all the jumping and climbing. As I get left in the dining room on Tuesday for OTB Rabbi Sherman is in the gym with war dodgeball. That was the blue vs red dodgeball kings. Awesome. Now I'm being wheeled to the gym for an amazing OTB activity. All the different challenges and matches wow it was great!! The next day of this packed week was the Jermeij the Great show. That's where I helped out the magician Jermeij put on an amazing show for all you Chevrnikers. Even I didn't know how from all the counselors there he knew Nachi was the laziest. The week isn't over yet. I thought after the summer of 2018 I wouldn't be stolen by an assistant head counselor anymore but here I was being dragged around by Dovi while he set up the carnival. It was so much fun and everyone loved winning all the prizes. Speaking of prizes it seems that Rabbi Peikes is about to raffle off one of the grand prizes.... oh no wait it's.... oh no.... COLOR WAR. another round of me getting passed around from person to person and me getting dropped by all the plays even though Rabbi Sherman begged the staff to not break me. The seventh week brought color war and a very scary moment for me. It all started when the red team was doing their play. I got passed to Zeshe who was dressed up like a king. That's the last thing I remember for the next twenty minutes. The paramedics told me later that I lost a pulse for over two minutes before they were able to get me back. To survive such a beating and walk away from it is nothing short of a miracle. The red team won against my better judgment as I am still recovering. Wednesday was minute to win it and other games as we had fun doing crazy things in the gym. Thursday of the seventh week I again was left all alone as the younger division went bowling and the senior guys went brown water rafting. That's when the rapids are so strong it makes the water turn from white to a nasty brown. Very dangerous, but I think everyone made it back okay. Except for CPW. The last and final week of the summer is always sad for me and it's always hard for Rabbi Sherman as well. I'm not sure what Rabbi Sherman would say about the eighth and final week of camp but if I had to guess it would be something like this. Thank you to all the amazing staff who really put their all into making this summer such a blast. He would love to thank all of you personally in this article but there would simply be no room. I can attest to all the great memories this summer has brought about and how much he enjoyed working with each and every one of you. He would then thank all the campers who did such a great job being campers and having such a great summer. He loves every one of you and wants every one of you to be back next year. Uh oh, there's a red light blinking on me which means my batteries are running out. So I only have a few more seconds before it's all over for me and I'm back in the storage unit with the other guys. I hear this year we are moving to these fancy pod things. So with my last breath I'm sure Rabbi Sherman would thank Yitz Greenbaum for such an amazing summer under such trying time and he would then thank Dovi for working so hard and helping in so many areas and then he would thank Rabbi P. . . .

A page of a diary of an Assistant Head Counselor

By: Rabbi Dovi Wizel

Wow another summer has shot by so fast, is it really week 8 already?! I think back to the first day and I remember that excitement and pump and now... It's almost over! Wow!

We really started this summer way before the first day of camp, as this summer really began back in April when the headstaff decided to have the Camp Chevra Zoom Show, and I still remember sitting at home bored out of my witz, and suddenly I was transported to camp, all while being stuck at home! That excitement only doubled once camp began, and it really was a roller coaster of a ride. I am sure you all remember some of the most amazing special activities we had this year, and this years leagues were probably the most intense ever (all thanks to Kobe Bekritzky who insists that he tried his hardest.) Swikers was busy swiking and building that I am sure that they came home with a summer full of adventure and knowledge (Tzvi Eli Kaufman and Dovi Fisher will be opening woodworking shops, if the whole school thing doesn't work out next year). Olympics with the Kuts was awesome, and Color War was really a blast (especially that cacophony that King Zisha made as he yelled at Rabbi Rosenberg asking for his name...) The water activities was a fun addition to camp, and I am sure that if I were to come visit the grounds in 3 months I will still find the Chevra Falls still flowing down the hill ( I don't know if I will find bunk Avraham siling and "guiding" the water down the hill, bit I heard that Shia Blumenberg (aka 'Home') and CPW (aka the most called out name on the radio) will be managing the falls for the rest of the year.

I also want to thank the brilliant minds behind camp as without them camp would just be a room with 200 people and a stick (just think about how boring that would be, kind of reminds you about the Covid days - no?)

Ari Goldstein, this was our first year working together in camp, and I have to say that the legendary Ari Goldstein really does live up to what was rumored about you. I have heard whispers in my past years at Chevra of the great Ari Goldstein, the best Swikers director, and seeing you in action, you have blown me away with your creative program and awesome activities. This years Swikers was definitely a year that none of the campers would ever forget (they have the shtender to remind them every time their mind begins to get foggy 😊) and thank you for this awesome summer!

Rabbi Sherman, you are one of the most talented people I have ever met. Your pump and excitement is just contagious, and it's that exact quality what makes you the best Head counselor ever. Your dedication to camp is also admirable, and your help during the music video shoot was really generous.

Rabbi Peikes, you are an incredible person, and this summer was really another great summer thanks to you. The effort that you put in behind the scenes (and obviously in middle of the action) is really appreciated by not only the headstaff but essentially the entire camp. Thank you for bringing the ruach into camp, and for being the voice of wisdom among chaotic situations.

Yitz, there are no words to describe your role in camp other than Important. You probably have the most on your plate, yet you always are available (and sometimes coerced 😊) to take more on and to help out wherever and whenever needed. Every staff member and every camper loves you for what you do, but more importantly, we love you more for who you are. Yitz you are the best! (please realize that we have not forgotten OTB when that 3 point shot just 'didn't make it in' yet Nosson Shue's did, but we love you anyway)

And last but not least Eli Smith, our Lunch Gopher. He also serves as our photographer, um... or videographer... one of the two... and his talent is second to none. When he tries and puts his mind to it, he delivers incredible footage (like week 6 for example). (Even when he doesn't try he comes up with good stuff, check out week 4 ). All kidding aside, Eli has been a good friend and a great shipmate aboard this incredible voyage, and I can't imagine summer 2020 without him. Eli you are the man!

I also want to thank the awesome staff for making this the best summer ever, and I can't wait to see you all, Campers and Staff, at Camp Chevra Yerushalayim 2021!!!!

In 10 years from now.....

Jacob Berkowitz will be the starting goalie for the Rangers, yet beg Mendel or Davey or anyone else to play goalie instead of him.

Shua Berman will still be terrorized by pitching mounds that move.

Moshe Bernstein will finally find the perfect air-conditioned room to chill in.

Shea Blumenberg will admit that he never got tested for Covid in camp 2020 and just needed a day off.

Avi Bodner will finally not be in the camp video.

Mordechai Chopp will finally have his own team.

Zisha Fortgang will stop whining about Shalom Kut's banner.

Daniel Ginsberg will get recognition for his trendy costumes.

Gavriel Grodko will have a drawer of his own to keep his personal belongings.

Avrumi Halberstam will have lost his car keys for the 100th time.

Moshe Hershberg will be head counselor of a camp.

Daniel Kaminetzky will be the latest Marvel Superhero- "Masked Man"!

Zevi Karoly will still be wondering how he didn't score off Jacob.

Shalom Kut will finally realize that I am not the reason he didn't win any championships.

Azriel Laster will be a successful person as his work ethic will take him places.

Daniel Lazarus will have a whistle.

Mendel Levin will still regret switching to kickball against Jacob.

Baruch Pollack will be still be the unassuming person that always gets the job done.

Nachi Reifer will continue to show off his league championship rings to Menachem Rosenberg.

Sruli Rosen will take over for Daniel Jones and finally make it through a full season in a football league.

Menachem Rosenberg will still be searching for his first league win.

(You're lucky Rabbi Sherman didn't write this article!)

Moshe Zev Schachter will still be wondering why Ari Goldstein got tips while he did not.

Nosson Schuh will reminisce about all his playoff comebacks as he brushes his hair in front of the mirror.

Yisroel Meir Schuster will try to cash his paycheck from 2020.

Avraham Schuster will still be asked by me to sing the MaNaVu Alma Mater.

Davey Shenker will finally give up on the Rangers because there is no way they will ever win with Jacob as their goalie.

Eli Siklos will have his own company and finally tell Bodner and Lazarus what to do.

Dovy Silber will still be wondering what Shea was doing all summer.

Eliyahu Spiegel will tell us what really happened in Vegas.

Yehuda Stamm will still blame me for losing the volleyball game.

Yaakov Stamm will still be upset at Rabbi Sherman for calling him Yehuda.

Chaim Pesach Weiss will be found.

Azzi Wolf will legally change his name to Fox.

Akiva Zidell will once again vow to win his first championship next year and then make the same vow again the next year.

Avi Zisman will find a job where he can work very hard for a few hours and chill for the rest of the day.

Rabbi Weinstein will only be driving smart cars.

Eli Smith will work on Friday.

Ari Goldstein, when asked about the year 2020, can only muster the words, "Did anyone see Chaim Pesach Weiss?"

Dovi Wizel will have 2 plays on Broadway: 1) "Schedule Nightmares" 2) "As the bridges burn"

Rabbi Sherman will own Camp Whim.

Rabbi Peikes will be 5 years into his extremely successful comedic career as the celebrity roaster known as Norman Zoom.

Yitz Greenbaum will finally stop eating Eli's Bagels

The Week 8 Article

By C P Lejjinderry Dubbs .Com, Shleets

I remember it well. We were at the staff restaurant chill and as I spit out a mouthful of aluminum, I turned to shuster and said I wish this had happened earlier so I could write about it in my article. That was really how the week started. You see, this week, camp is really working with my schedule, because most weeks I write my article on Tuesday and can't talk about what happened the rest of the week till next article. This week, the week is ending on Wednesday, so I'm not missing anything (awkward, cuz now I'm writing it on Sunday, so I'm not going to know anything that happened this week. Oh well, I guess I'll put them in my first article next summer.) anyways so now I just have to write about last week. Everyone was rolling in in sweatshirts (cuz come on, you get cool merch but you don't have a time to rock it during the summer with your friends (especially if we keep not going ice skating) so you make up every excuse to wear it, like: it's cold in a restaurant, right? (and same thing with the bus after delaware) the problem was they were all wearing shorts too. Rabbi sherman finally told the staff how he feels about them, zisha told eli smith how everyone really feels about him, (that's how you know that zisha wrote the color war song: 1. “eli smith, the head staff” – i.e. they're two different things. it was worth giving him a shoutout just to say he's not head staff, and 2. You always make us laugh...) and MZ shachter bit the top off a soda can. Also our staff members got to meet moishy genuth for the first time.

As the zman is winding down, interesting things are happening in camp. Ari goldjosh has been creatively trying to avoid putting the camp logo on the shtenders (ari to eli smith: who designed that logo? Eli: he didn't look jewish but it sounded like he was speaking yiddish ) rumor has it that it is because of ari's deep rooted ties with other camps- I saw a camp fun logo floating around camp lately. It is actually funny, the camp got this GUY named “rabbi zoom” to write their “week in review” article this week, DON'T know who he is, (he gave me like twenty five shoutouts) but he accused me of writing about other camps. I hope that's not a reference to shmifta, because it is a well known fact that chevra and shmifta are one and the same. (p.s. true story: I actually throughout this summer have hung both an elyon sticker and a camp fun sign on the office door in camp) this article was obviously making fun of the word “kulam” in one of my articles. As we so clearly saw on all the camp videos on the bus, no other camp can compare to our camp. Why, just this week, we got nissim black (the small one from vegas) aka Nachi the clean shaved chassid. We went on a crazy trip to delaware (that's a different state, right?) we have unlimited DVD's torah cards and pink tablecloths. We even have a girraffe (and oorah thinks they're sooo cool with their camel) we even have shaya rubin- we just don't know where he is. we say we don't know where cpw is. we actually don't know where nurse aron goldstine is. (Mahwah) We pretend we don't know what shmifta is. everyone, however, knows what berko is...

We went to delaware, and the rule always proves true that the trip there is more fun than the actual time spent at the destination. (shmuel reich strikes again) in the bus you don't get sunburn, even if you're wearing shorts with your sweatshirt. We had great videos of this cool guy who walks into a wall, and there was even a game of throwing around this clothing. Zevi Karolyvirus was tucked snugly in the front and kaminetzky played some elchonon baruch on his cracked phone. Daniel haas and zevi deutch had a tickle war, and when I sat down on the grass to learn, everyone gathered around. I'm Gonna miss everyone! Make sure to have a crazy year, rock each day, and hopefully I'll see YOU around soon!

Chaim Pesach Weiss

I am still nowhere to be found

Wow, this summer flew by so fast, I had a lot of fun with all you guys (even though sometimes there was a bit of misbehaving), how I wish the summer could be longer so I don't have to go back to school.. I mean be with you guys forever! 😊. The amount of fun I had was unimaginable and I would like to thank every single one of you. Joe Taub, Shmuel Strimling, Daniel Klahr, Shua Shenker, Eliyahu & Yaakov Heinemann, Simcha Curland, Ami Hanfling, Yosef Gewirtzman, and Shimon blumenberg. I can't thank you all enough for the absolutely best summer yet and I hope to see you all next summer!!!!

From the Kabin of the Kritikally Konfused Kowboy/Pirate Who is Far From the Sea

Ye may have already notiked that in this letter, the letter "sea" is often replaked by the letter "K" (or "X"). This is bekause, as a pirate, I am sad to be away from the sea, and wanted to symbolize this to all ye adventurers who bother te read this. But as sad as I may be te be away from the sea, I am even more sad te be away from the greatest kamp ever, Kamp Xevra, and away from my krew, Bunk Yitzchok.

That said...As a seasoned veteran (that's right--I dump a bukket of fresh paprika on me head eakh morning) of the high seas, I have little experienke with mushy good-bye letters...

But, by the tides, I'm going to give a shot.

So here goes.

To My Krew, Bunk Yitzchok

Benjy Fisher Pretty mukh always by me side, and not akting like yer "too kool" te take me advike, I always kan easily find ye. But that means more than making me life easier when I try to take attendanke...

Kin I put it inte words? Nay, it is not easy for me te understand. Benjy, ye are like a little brother te me.

Yosef Gutman Right from day one, I knew you'd be me right-hand man. Ye try to help with me job whenever ye kan. Most years, someone too young to be an aktual staff member dekides te follow my krew around, and akt as my unoffikial junior kounselor. Never before though, has my "junior kounselor" been as young as ye. I look forward te see the day when ye get te be in kharge of a krew of yer own.

Moshe Lampert Yer kooperation is kommendable. Ye always are kontent te roll with the tides of whatever is going on without a single komplaint, and I know yer always just where yer supposed te be. Makes me life mukh easier, and me throat less hoarse, as I never need te bark orders at ye.

Ari Lipszyc Ye know how te pray. Though at first, it may not seem like the most impressive of talents, one should not be fooled by first impressions. Prayer is something very few are a master of, and one who has the skill should not let it go te waste. When ye pray, ye speak te God, The One Who Is All-Powerful And Created The World. Working on yer unique talent will allow ye te come te realize this in a whole new way. As ye come te the realization that ye are speaking with The All-Powerful One, and not just mumbling archaic words, ye begin te feel Him near you, watching over you. The feeling that God Himself watches over you and guides you brings a feeling of confidence and calmness like nothing else. I have felt this myself a handful of times, especially during the dark tides of the Covid Apocalypse. Work on yer talent. Make it grow. You will be amazed at what you find.

Shmulie Mendeleovich Honesty. It is an inborn trait ye have, lad. And it is one of the most vital things te the existenke of te world. I'll prove it te ye. It is said in Pirkei Avos, 1st Perek, 18th Mishna, that the three things human survival stands on are Justice, Truth, and Peace. Without these things, life wouldn't have order and strukture, and people would never be able to get along. L'fi Aniyas Da'ati, I'd even venture te say that truth/honesty is the most important of the three, as the other two kannot exist without honesty. Justice is obviously fake if the people bringing justice are dishonest, and peace kan never last long between people who often lie te eakh other. So rejoice over yer unique blessing, Shmulie. Ye have one of the most valuable things in the world.

Shmuel Seleski I've had many great athletes in my krew before. You too, Shmuel, are a great athlete. But ye are something more than just that. Ye are the perfekt kombination of being both an amazing athlete while also having amazing sportsmanship. What more could a kaptain want? In bunk matkhes and during kolor war, it was great having ye on me team, and I know that yer league kaptain is lucky to have ye on his side.

Yisroel Shulman Chilled about just about everything, and seemingly having infinite patience, methink the Yeshivish word te deskribe ye is Adle. While I love being in kamp, and I have a great krew, it is an expected fakt of life that even the best of krews will put their leader under some stress. You, however, never did anything to kontribute te this stress, and that is a kompliment few are 100% worthy of getting.

Aaron Silber Ye are an aggressively skilled athlete who will fight tooth and nail for glorious viktory—yet at the same time, ye care for justice within the match with a passion, and will stop at nothing te make sure justice is served, even when it will be te yer detriment. Ye want te win more than anyone, but will only accept viktory if it was earned fairly. A noble trait.

Asher Singer Ninja Asher Singer. I will forever remember the day that I threw a dodgeball and actually managed te hit ye with it. And that's bekause I know that it ain't happening again. I'd sooner win the lottery twike. But ye are more than just a guy who's good at dodging dodgeballs--yer Koakh of Sur May'Rah is at least as strong. Ye know how te follow rules and stay out of trouble. And as we all know, after Sur May'Rah komes Asay Tov. Ye are kind te others--krewmen and strangers alike. I expekt that if ye kontinue in yer positive ways, ye will become a great man someday.

Elimelekh Sternbuch Persistence. It is the power te make a decision on what ye will do, and stikk te that decision. This is yer unique power, and something many people nowadays do not have. The whole world is spread out before ye. Ye kin be just about anything (exkept an astronaut, of kourse), as long as ye make a firm decision te be that. Once ye decide on yer plan, nothing kan stop ye, and ye will succeed in yer plan no matter what gets in yer way, as long as yer given enough time. Never give up--bekause refusing te give up is exaktly what yer made for.

Agent Moshe Shachter Every great kaptain needs a great deputy, and ye filled that role well. Though this may be yer first summer as a staff member, ye filled yer role well, and have good qualities for dealing with the lads, such as patience. Ye usually followed orders without question, something I defenitely didn't do when I was new, and, as an added bonus, ye lugged around that aux device everywhere. Thanks for all the help!

Though we must part ways, I shall not forget you. Soon we shall all be at the mercy of the turbulent tides of life outside of Xevra. Who knows where they will take each of us. Perhaps fate will bring our paths te kross once again in the future. Regardless, I hope for you all te be successful in yer adventures.

If ye ever need te contact me, assuming I wasn't eaten by a sea monster, ye kan send me a letter in a bottle at any time, or if for some reason ye like doing things the modern way, call (845)445-5922 or email danielyginsberg@gmail.com.

Words From My JC

This summer with the Krew and all was an amazing one. First and foremost, I want te thank our honorable Kaptain Daniel for taking lead, and making sure that the Krew had a good time on board. Secondly, I want te thank the Krew for kooperating with us, and making this summer a blast. Finally, I want te thank Kaptain Yitz, Kaptain Rabbi Peikes, as well as Kaptain Rabbi Sherman, Kaptain Dovi, Kaptain Eli, Kapain Ari, and anyone else that made this possible.

Thank You Junior Kaptain Moshe Zev Schachter

Honorable Mentions/Random Shoutouts

Yisroel Seleski "Yisroel, seen your brother anywhere? I've been looking all over for him..."

"He's playing King"

"Oh"

This konversation happened at the "Dodgeball with Kings" spekiel aktivitiy.

I still find it funny how foolish I felt at that moment.

Tzvi Kreisman I still remember the good old days last year when ye were my unoffikial Junior Kounselor. Just wanted te thank ye for all the help. Probably should've written this last year, but better late than never.

Gavriel Plym I admit defeat. I do running praktike regularly, I'm not overweight, and I'm about twike yer height (and, as such, have longer legs than ye). Yet ye kin still run faster than me, even when I run my hardest. Very impressive.

Azriel Laster Ye probably know the other reason why the "sea"s are replaked by "k"s in this letter.

Shea Blumenberg Oh wait, ye kalled Klone 003 now.

My League Krew

I kan tell ye, being a pirate kaptain did not prepare me for the rigors of being a league kaptain. Even still, I think we all did great, and all of us have made improvements since the beginning--I too learned a thing or too more about being a kaptain, and it's thanks te you guys. As of the time of writing, playoffs haven't yet started, so I don't know whether we'll kelebrate viktory or suffer defeat, but I kin tell ye that ye all fought this battle with honor, even though things weren't always perfekt. You guys are like a sekond bunk te me. I will remember ye all fondly just like my offikial bunk. Like I wrote te my offikial bunk, if ye ever need te contact me, assuming I wasn't eaten by a sea monster, ye can send me a letter in a bottle at any time, or if for some reason ye like doing things the modern way, call (845)445-5922 or email danielyginsberg@gmail.com.

Azriel and Doni, you guys are really so special. Thank you so much for your constant help throughout the summer. I couldn't have asked for better Jc's. Really. Azriel, I am amazed with the sincerity and care that you gave to our bunk. I appreciated how you so often offered to help and always with a smile. Thank you so much. Doni, your so awesome. When you showed up on the second day, it was a pleasant surprise. I respect you for your honesty and your constant push in making an effort to be a great JC. The kids loved your funny wit and appreciated your honesty and loud voice. Basically in short, you guys rock the house.

*Bunk Yaakov, we really had a blast this summer. You guys are flowing over the brim with positivity, growth, and sweetness. I learnt so much from each and every one of you. You guys are so talented and pure. It was a real pleasure being your counselor in Camp Chevra this summer. Please don't hesitate to reach out :)

Bunk Reuven

Honestly can't believe it's been a whole two months since summer started. I walked in the first day and met all the wonderful kids in Bunk Reuven and knew it was going to be an amazing summer. With Nesonel Roizman first half and Mordechai Chopp for second, I had the two best Junior Counselors anyone could ask for. But now that the summers coming to a close and we're saying goodbye, I also have to say thanks. Thank you Dovie Eisenberg for always being the first to offer to help. Thank you Noam Genut for your integrity and always sticking to your morals. Thank you Daniel Greenfield for always being kind to others, no matter how hard it may be. Thank you Binyamin Grunenbaum for being outgoing and making friends with everybody in the bunk. Thank you Binyamin Heineman for always keeping people laughing. Thank you Eli Klein for always adding creativity to all of our activities. Thank you Zalman Light for always staying confident and being a true leader in the bunk. Thank you Mordechai Meth for being honest and pushing everyone to do the right thing. Thank you Hillel Newhouse for your contagious smile. Thank you Shuey Rosen for your enthusiasm in everything we do, and always helping others learn and improve in sports. Thank you Ari Schorr for having the best time while playing bunk games. Thank you Shlomo Sussholz for being so zis, it's in your name, but also for being so positive and cheerful all the time. I'm going to miss everyone and I hope you have a wonderful and mostly normal school year. I hope to see you all next summer!!

All the best, Akiva Zidell

Bunk Shimon

TO THE BEST CAMPERS EVER,

Wow what a summer it has been!!!! The sports, the fun, the special activities, Etc, it has been one very special summer! When a summer camp is made there is one big factor that determines the success of that camp, and that is the campers, are they nice campers, are they happy campers, do they have good middos, etc. Well we are glad to say that the bunk Shimon campers have fit all the criteria! What more can we ask than the campers that we had this summer. Every single one of you is a gem of a boy who has a very bright future ahead of you! Let's start with Shalom Adler. You play sports well, are a nice kid to be around with, and you have great Ruach! Keep it up!! Then we jump to Daniel BenShlomo whose catches by dodgeball and in football are legendary! Despite all odds you always end up with the ball in your hands. Next comes Shua Cohen. The intensity of your sport playing is admirable. We all felt something missing when you were out for a few days. We're all glad you're better! Next up is Akiva Kahana. The fun and games that you bring to the bunk is one of a kind. From singing songs to cheering for your team you are one of a kind. Then we have Daniel Gottesman. What a Sweet boy! You always help out for whatever has to be done. Even though you were in Swikers you still are a very big part of our bunk. Benny Neuhauser, who knew that a second grader can play sports like you do. You are for sure better than the average 5th grader out there and probably six grader too. We never could have won bunk games without you on our side!. Huda stanski, wherever I look there you are!! Your boundless fun and energy is what keeps chevra going! Tuvi Bennett, wow! check out those muscles. From stick chopping to lifting two chairs, it's a pleasure to have someone so strong in my bunk. Knowing you, it'll only get bigger. Sammy Tanenbaum, what a gem of a kid. The mixture of good sportsmanship balanced with amazing Sports athleticism, you are truly one of a kind. Keep up what you are doing and you will go very far. Osher vaksman, your playful enthusiasm is a big asset to our bunk. Even though you broke your arm, your humor has never left and we hope it stays that way. Mendy Muller, welcome to Monsey! We know it must have been hard to be in a day camp starting off in a fresh place with not knowing many people, but you did amazing! You played well in leagues, you played well with the bunk, you far exceeded all our expectations! You are a great role model for us all. Meir Rubin, that smile just never leaves your face! How do you do it? No matter the circumstances you always have a good word to say. Just keep up what you're doing and light up the whole world with that smile!! And last but not least we have Elchonon Kut. The excitement that you bring along with you every single morning is what gets us through our day. Without you we'd still be half asleep. All in all you guys are the best bunk that a counselor and JC could ever have asked for. Every single one of you has been a big asset to our bunk and we never would have been the same without you. Keep it up and never let that smile come off your face and may you only grow higher and higher and show everyone else what it means to be a true member of klal yisrael. Keep it up and I hope to see you next summer! You guys are the best!!!!!!!

All the best, from your favorite counselors,

Yisrael Meir Schuster [845-709-7881]

TO BUNK ZEVULUN

SECOND half went By so fast But I want to thank every single one of you for letting me have the Best summer of my life. I can't explain how excited (And a little nervous) I was when yitz told me That I'm going to have you guys second half. Whether it was winning every Bunk Competition (I Don't think we lost once) or going rafting, Big thanks to Boat O-R-E. It was so much fun to Be around you guys the whole Day. Everyone Brought something unique/ amazing/ interesting/ fascinating/ funny to the Bunk. It just felt like every time I saw Moshe Play footBall I would say "that's the Best catch I ever saw" I used to think that I loved kugel the most once I met Sammy on a Friday that changed.

It always amazes me know matter if Closed or open Shia was all ways By the canteen. If I was elya I would right a Book of how to get your jc scared. If David would for one minute stop saying how Bad he is at Baseball you would realize how good you are at every other sport (and really good at Baseball). If I could say one thing for sure every Day and I know would happen shael would not come to camp. I want to give a special thank you to Aryeh muller for Being the Perfect Camper. If I had to Choose one Person to talk to for 10 hours straight it would Be Ezra. If I had Bases loaded 2 outs in the World Series yossi would Be the only one I want up. Maybe one Day Aryeh Kahn will wear sneakers to camp not slides, there is a rumor that natives were worn on Aryeh's feet. Thank you Eli for letting my Bag tour the whole Building (and even the garbage). Avi is 100 % the Best Person I ever met, anytime there was one thing left and 2 people you would let them have it. If anyone finds Yehuda not smiling I would Be shocked. Anytime I saw shua he was helping or trying to help someone else your kindness is truly incredible.

Bunk Naftali - Gad

Wow!! What a summer it's been! We all thought camp would be cancelled but nothing can stop Camp Chevra! It was a blast to spend the summer with the best bunk in the entire world. All the great memories we've picked up that will last a lifetime. (Before I begin I would like to give a shout out to our first half JC Nossou Lazarus.)

A Day in The Life Of Bunk NAFTALI/Gad.

We start off our day with some awesome bunk games. I found out we are the best at football. Moshe Levy's favorite and best sport is definitely baseball. Shlomo Fried would disagree and say football is better, but a packet of Twizzlers would end that argument right away. After bunk games lunch would come along right after Ozzy Fisher and Yehuda Heineman would ask, "When is lunch?" That's fine because I think lunch is the best part of the day. But before we go to lunch Yosef Katz teaches us a mishna. When lunch is coming to end there's some contests and races and Netanel Klein would make sure to be part of it (of course he won). After lunch we had water activities which I'm pretty sure Yossi Dembitzer (Rottenberg) King of the slip n slide was also the only one to go on it. Enough with the schedule! Some quick thoughts. Yehuda Heinemann I hope you didn't lose your bag yet. Thank you Ari Sabo for providing camp with the best baseball bat. Avraham Rosenthal always kept his cool and great attitude at all times. Meshulam Fine taking the game of kickball to the next level and making the rest of us look like fools. Shua Schorr who I saw at the barbershop and I still think has a better haircut than me. But taught us how to fit hundreds of wristbands on our arms. Shaya Steinhart always made sure I knew who his brother was. Thank you to all of my amazing campers who helped make camp so enjoyable to come to every day. Also thank you so much to the most amazing co counselor Zevi Karoly for all the help.

Sincerely, Your counselor, Davey (The Baby) Shenker

If I got a penny every time.....

Shlomo Fried- wore his Steelers jersey

Netanel Klein- asked me to play taps

Ari Sabo- brought his baseball bat to camp

Yossi Dembitzer (Rottenberg)- wanted to play soccer with me

Yehuda Heinemann- left his bag somewhere

Moshe Levy- was throwing a baseball

Ozzy Fisher- came up with a new nickname for me and Davey

Meshulam fine- wore his broncos cap

Yosef Katz- was learning mishnayos

Shaya Steinhart- danced

Avraham Rosenthal- brought a new yarmulke to camp

Shua Schorr- wore his Warriors jersey

I WOULD BE A MILLIONAIRE!!!!

Thank you guys for making this one of the best summers of my life.

Sincerely, Your co-counselor, Zevi Karoly

Bunk Asher

WOW I CAN NOT BELIEVE THAT I AM SITTING HERE WRITING THE END-OF-SUMMER ARTICLE! I REMEMBER ON THE FIRST DAY OF CAMP WHEN WE WERE ALL SITTING UNDER A TREE IN THE SHADE MOSHE GENUTH CAME OVER TO US AND SAID THAT WE SHOULD REMEMBER THIS MOMENT BECAUSE VERY SOON IT'LL BE THE LAST DAY OF CAMP.

HE WAS RIGHT. THIS SUMMER FLEW BY. I WOULD LIKE TO START OFF BY SAYING THANK YOU BUNK ASHER; I COULDN'T HAVE ASKED FOR A BETTER BUNK. YOU REALLY MADE IT EASY FOR ME. IT BROUGHT ME JOY TO SEE THAT ALL OF YOU WERE GREAT FRIENDS. YAACOV STAMM!!!! DON'T THINK I FORGOT ABOUT YOU. YOU REALLY WERE A MAJOR HELP. THE WORK THAT YOU PUT INTO THIS BUNK AND CAMP REALLY SHOWS. I THANK YOU FOR BEING THERE WHEN I COULDN'T. AVI HAAS, EVEN THOUGH YOU HATE THAT I GIVE YOU ICES EVERY DAY, YOUR ATTITUDE IS SO EXITING. IT ALWAYS LOOKS LIKE YOUR PUMPED UP FOR SOMETHING. MOSHE SCHILLER, YOU ARE SOMEONE THAT HAS TRUE DEVOTION AND CARE, IT WAS ALWAYS SO EASY TO START A CONVERSATION WITH YOU (P.S. IF YOU NEED TO BLAME SOMETHING ON SOMEONE, JUST GIMME A CALL).

HILLEL HOOK, WHEN YOUR READING THIS I BET YOU FORGOT YOUR METS CAP. YOU WERE A FRIEND TO EVERYONE, YOU CAPTIVATED EVERYONE WITH YOUR INTERESTING STORY'S (BTW YOU SHOULD TOTALLY SEE STAR WARS NOW 😊). ZEVI DEUTSCH, ALWAYS WITH A SMILE YOUR SPORTSMANSHIP WAS INCREDIBLE. NEVER STOP ASKING QUESTIONS!! DANIEL HAAS, I CAN GUARANTEE THAT YOUR WEARING YOUR YANKEE JERSEY RIGHT NOW. YOU ALWAYS HAD SOMETHING SMART TO SAY; NEVER CHANGE. LEVI TENENBAUM, WE ALWAYS HAD A GOOD LAUGH. THANKS FOR MAKING THIS SUMMER AWESOME FOR US!!(AND NO. I DID NOT SEE VOLTRON YET...) EZZY FRIEDMAN, WOW YOU CAME SECOND HALF BUT I'D FEELS LIKE YOU'VE BEEN HERE ALL SUMMER. I'M SO GLAD YOU CAME BECAUSE YOU MADE MY SUMMER THAT MUCH BETTER. AVROHOM KORN, EVEN THOUGH YOUR NOT HERE TO READ THIS I STILL WANT TO SAY THAT WE MISSED YOU THIS HALF AND I HOPE THAT YOU HAD A GREAT SUMMER.

ALL THAT SAID I HOPE THAT ALL OF YOU GUYS HAVE A GREAT YEAR TOGETHER AND CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU NEXT SUMMER!!!!

ONE LAST THING I NEED TO KNOW, WHY DO ALL OF YOU LOVE THE PURPLE ICES?!?!?!?! I DON'T GET IT EVERYONE WANTS PURPLE EVERY DAY; WHAT'S SO GOOD ABOUT IT???? OMG EVEN AVI HAAS WANTS PURPLE!

ZISHA FORTGANG

In 20 Years...

Zevy Deutch - Will be the fastest person to live on earth (well at least faster than me)

Ezzy Friedman - Will have the best memory in the world

Avi Haas - Will be Shortstop on the Yankees

Daniel Haas - Will still be wearing the same Gleyber Torres jersey

Hillel Hook - Will be a yankees fan (that's what happens when you wear a yankees cap 😂)

Avraham Korn - Will agree that newcome is a sport

Moshe Schiller - Will be a 5-time Home Run Derby champion

Levi Tenenbaum - Will buy Star Wars from Disney

Zisha Fortgang - Will still be the best counselor alive

Thank you guys so much for such an amazing summer I am going to miss all you guys!

P.S. If you guys see me around in school (Post corona iyh) feel free to come over and say hi!

Until next year

A message to each and every one of you guys:

Akiva Fogelman— no I am not doing the movie trailer voice

Binyomin Gutman— I kinda wasn't able to recognize you without your Giants cap 😊

Shragie Lazarus— the floor of the coach bus is not the best place to lay down (also you are waaaaaay too hyper)

Yoni Cherns— your volleyball serving skills aren't really all that “GOATED”

Yaakov Yurowitz— you know you really didn't want to get traded from my team first half just admit it

Shaya Nisenbaum— dude you need to chill out

Ari Bernstein— I'm still surprised that you didn't know not to bring your bag on the raft

Shimi Ackerman— I'm pretty sure I've heard you speak like 5 times the entire summer

Yuddle Hecht— how are so many of your scratch-off tickets winning tickets?

Eli Muhlbauer— please stop screaming in my ear

It's been a pretty wild summer, guys. From the 2 trips we went on to the special activities that we barely showed up to, I'm glad to have been assigned to you guys. As you enter 8th grade and ultimately high school and beyond, I want to wish you guys a ברכה that you all be successful in this thing we call “growing up.”

Shout out to my first half guys (and Berko) for making this summer special for me and for all of you guys.

Signing off,

Nosson Schuh
