

Woooooooooooooooooooooooooooooek 7

Gentlemen and gentlemen, it's another week here in Camp Chevra and we are rocking and rolling!! Well, the campers are rocking but there is a cat in camp still named Kalman who is rolling around. When I asked him why he's rolling around he said it's because he had three slices of pizza and he can't walk. I asked him why he's still here and he said because this is the week that he catches Michael the Mouse. So, I figured I watch him to see if he will actually get the job done. The first thing I notice is that he is very lazy, and he always gets distracted by food. Maybe that's why he is having such a hard time with this whole mouse thing. See, it's only Monday and he's running around looking for envelopes stuffed with pictures. When I follow him, I see Gedalia Siklos and Abie Shenker running out to the football fields, and I see Avromi

Kopstick and pieces running to the lockers. I follow him to the gym, and I see all the bunks sitting on the floor and gluing in all these pieces of pictures. Bunk Levi seems like they have almost every picture and Bunk Yissachar is again almost on the way to another prize. After all the pieces were found all around camp, the bunks tried to get the entire picture. As the day comes to an end the leagues are really coming to a close finish. On Tuesday we all packed our beautiful busses to go to Clementon, the amazing water park and amusement park. As the busses pull out, I see the little mouse gets on bus number two, while Kalman gets on bus number three. At least I know that they won't be arguing on the trip. When we pull into the park, I expect Kalman to attack and take advantage of the sleepy mouse, but he is again distracted by the delicious tuna and egg sandwiches and all the rides. It's off to the amazing amusement park entertainment. After going on the ring of fire with Weltin and Kut it was off to the train which took us all around the amazing park. After the train we went off to the swings and the turny purple things. The carousel was nice, and the basketball shot was a real tricky doozer. It was then 2:30 and was time to hit the water park. The first thing we went on was the huge 6-person tube ride. The tube went round and round before splashing into the pool below. It was then off to the lazy river which was more like a riptide. The tubes were sailing along as we all had a great time. The wave pool and the massive bucket drop were epic, and the big drop and the race slides were awesome. After getting my ices and finishing off the last few rides it was back to the oak pavilion to get changed and start heading back to camp. There was Kalman again wolfing down cold cut sandwiches as we all ate supper and davened mincha. The way back I hear Kalman got very upset because he was on the bus that broke down. B"H everyone got back basically on time, and everyone had a blast. One thing that Kalman hates is surprises. The one time in 2017 when Avigdor Hammer surprised him with a peanut butter cake, Kalman didn't talk to Avigdor for two weeks. Now I see Kalman getting into his little cage, and he looks all upset. He says that on the bus back they broke out COLORWAR team blue vs red and he was all surprised and even shocked. All the boys loved it and they are all getting ready for an amazing color war. Wednesday starts off with red and blue. The teams headed to the gym for some amazing races and some intense competitions. The cheering and shouting for the teams were insane. The staff had a blast coming out in costumes and in color. The first day of color war was cheer songs and sports. After one long day of swimming races, sport games, singing, learning and cheering the scores are so close I have no idea who will win. The second day of color war brings the scores even closer with red winning the staff kickball game and blue winning the sport games. It was thanks to Akiva Deutsch's game winning smashing hit that his team won their game and got points. it was now time for the plays and songs. The blue teams play was just perfect. Short and sweet and to the point. The red teams were long and crazy, and I don't know if I got the point. After the plays was the tearful alma mater. Each team sang so well and clear and poured out their hearts. In the end the winning team was the team of bah bah bah bah bah bah.... RRREEEDDD!! Yes, as you know it was Sruli Rosen, Bentzi Warum, Mrs. Kut and the team of red who got the victory. Everyone put in their all and had an amazing color war. Just as you think it's time for dismissal and the day is over.... it's not. Two luxurious stretch limo party busses just pulled up to camp and the entire senior division is off to high exposure. That's where Elya Adler, Dovid Benjamin and the rest of the crew climbed up the 200-foot walls of terror. The climbing skills and abilities were shining as these boys swung, climbed and even sit on toilets for two hours of non-stop fun. As Friday rolls around its time for playoffs!! Every team has a chance to be crowned the champion of leagues. Let hit the fields and see who will move on and who will be sent home.

Chevra X

By Rabbi Wizel

Squeak...Squeak...Squeak!

Hey everyone, it's Michael Mouse. I personally love coming out of my hole to snoop around in the afternoon during Camp Chevra X. That's when most of Camp Chevra has gone home and it's only a select few that stay back for the party of their lives. (As I mentioned in the past, I am a bit too shy and overwhelmed to come out during the day when all 200 campers are roaming the hall. It's also a squish hazard.) Because of this, I usually don't go on any major trips other than the weekly Thursday trips. (Which would make it suspicious that Kalman the Klutzy Cat apparently saw a mouse at the boulders game and thought it was me...it's like...you think you can get away with not knowing who I am and just calling me Tzaddik to my face... HOW CAN A MASTER EXTERMINATOR NOT KNOW WHO HIS TARGET IS??!?!? Ughh. Whatever.) But after missing last major trip and hearing all about how great it was, I decided that this time I would come out of my shell and hop along to CLEMINTON AMUSEMENT PARK!

The entire Monday I was sooooo excited that I couldn't think straight. Even Daniel Halpert, my canteen buddy, noticed that something was off with me and he even offered me a can of Sierra Mist (Canteen Manager tried to get more Sprite, but The Rabbi did not let him steal any more staff... so he had to improvise) to calm my nerves. In the end it was only Shlomo Fried's squeeze up ices wrapper that made me calm enough to go to sleep. I mean, I'm a small mouse and here I'm going on this major trip to a big park really far away from home...gulp!

Tuesday morning I was up bright and early and after I did some finger breaths, I stepped out of my mousehole and into Camp Chevra's hallways. I saw so many kids bubbling with this contagious excitement that it really made me feel better about the big trip. As soon as the busses pulled in I made my way to the oldest bus with all the kids that I recognized from Chevra X when all of a sudden...NO...it can't be...THE CANTEEN MANAGER!!!! He was sitting at the front of the bus with the same evil smile he had during the entire Olympics 2021!!! My little brain quickly switched gears and I ran off the bus as fast as my little legs could take me. I flew all the way to the 2nd bus where I found... Kalman the Klutzy Cat wearing headphones and fast asleep. I am not being on a bus with this clown; his snoring is ruining my concentration. So I finally settled down in the youngest bus where The Chassidish Guy was in charge (I was scared that he might be driving, but he asked one of his trillion cousins to drive instead). The ride there was a lot of fun. I got to schmooze with Daniel Ginsberg, Joe Joe Taub, Menachem Landy and Eliyahu Galvine, and before I knew it, we had arrived! Clementon Amusement Park and Water Park!

To describe the amount of fun I had would take up six pages, so I will try to keep it short. I met some mice on the line to get soda. Apparently, they came from Brooklyn with their camps, and we spent the day together schmoozing, going on rides, swimming in the wave pool and just having an awesome time. Kalman the Klutzy Cat on the other hand was found sleeping on a beach chair at the kiddy park. What a goof.

On the way back The Chassidish Guy played an awesome video when all of the sudden COLOR WAR BREAKOUT!!!! Wow, I did not see that coming. I went to bed that night excited to see what adventures color war would bring the next day.

Wednesday, I opted to stay in my mousehole for the first half of the day, but I did manage to peek out during track and field to see and feel the ruach that color war brings to camp. After a magnet-tizing dismissal (see what I did there? 😊), our Chevra X boys davened Mincha and were off to the playoff games! Yes, that's right, we are up to play offs already.... so exciting!!! Refreshments were served cold as the weather was quite hot, and Zalman Light's leftover ices saved me from a heatstroke. Phew.

Thursday was round 2 of Color War, and boy did the 2 teams bring on the heat – no, literally Black Heavens (the Canteen Manager's expensive weather app) reported that it was 100% heat on Thursday, and the source was Camp Chevra headquarters where the 2 teams went neck to neck in one of the most intense and hair raising Color Wars in camp's history. The cheer songs, the alma matter, the games, it was all too intense for me. And just when the day couldn't get any more exciting, 2 PARTY BUSES roll into the driveway to bring the campers to HIGH EXPOSURE!!!! As soon as I got on the party bus, though, I got dazed by the pumping music, bright disco lights, and did I mention the massive squish- hazard?! Good thing that Moshe Weissberg and Avraham Peikes saw me and quickly hid me in the ice box before Yossi Dembitzer and Shua Appel got up to dance their hearts out. Close call.

At High Exposure the boys were strapped on to harnesses and off they went to all the different walls to climb. Akiva Deutch managed to make it to the 30 ft Throne of Honor at the top of the rock climbing wall, and Eli Grossberger climbed the picture frame wall almost till the top. There was so much climbing everywhere that it was nearly impossible not have a blast. Speaking of having a blast, I thought I saw Kalman the Klutzy Cat somewhere... where was it again... oh yeah! I remember now! He was sleeping on the party bus, how could I forget! Anyways, after the trip, the Really Big Jolly Loud Gentleman came on our party bus for the ride back and boy did he rock it up! He got Chaim Ansbacher, Gavriel Halpert, and Shimon Greenspan so pumped that for a second they all looked like they were fully face painted for the red team. As we finish up this week I am beginning to hear some very alarming rumors that are making me nervous... I'm hoping it's not true and that it only gets better....

Squeak, squeak, have a great week!

Yours truly,

Michael Mouse

Even though cp"dubs" is no longer in camp. we will continue to have his Articles. We can't have a week without random shoutouts to misspelled campers and random people most of you never heard of. so hear goes

"wait who wrote this article" - CPW/ "who is rabbi kletzrachen" - Manny H / "will my hair ever grow back" - me to nesanel roizman / "Where is the duct tape"- rabbi piggle wiggle "why do you do these quotes anyway" - Shua Appel / "Are we their yet" - multiple / Is the bus moving? - Rabbi Sherman/ "Why did Newton have to sit under an apple tree to discover gravity? Did he think apples fell up until that point?" - Bored staff member

As the bucket said to the rope well well well. This was a week to remember. I remembered that camp started Monday, even though not so stam didn't, he thought it started Tuesday. Monday was find the PICTURE day. This would have been an AMAZING ACTIVITY if surly rosenator didn't take all the envelopes thinking they were tips. BOY was he surprised to find sixteen pictures of my tongue in them. This was the first time they found Chaim Pesach during an activity.

Tuesday was trip day, but I got back up. I missed the BUS and had to ride the rest of the way on the TIRES. Has anyone seen my belt? Or my spleen? When we got there I was first in line for the roller coaster. I'm still waiting. Moshe Brachfeldinber was coming down the slide in his tube, I wish I had seen this earlier as I went down the slide under my tube. It was better than Krinski who thought the tube was a donut and....well he's fine now. Shaya "the emperor" genut had sixteen cups of free soda, but I just kept my mouth open when the big bucket tipped. Speaking of tips rabbi pikis duzznt let me speak about tips.

Color breakout was supposed to be three busses broke down but in an ironic Olympic day twist, two of them didn't get stuck. Rabbi shermans did because something was in the engine. (now I know where my spleen went) . Either weigh it was color war and lootenant generl jake took a page out of my book and was nowhere to be found. Now we know why they wore masks last year. Dov "elmo" carolli became a tiger , but was knocked out by Yossi "Winnie the pooh" Neuman. This would have been fine but he had a water bottle next to him and his picture is now in the post office. This year red won because of me. I didn't write their songs and plays and that immediately resulted in victory.

Random shoutouts. It was shloimi "silver" goldsteins birthday and I love cupcakes. Menachem Landy rocked the swikers hike, which was better than ary kraslater who was stuck on the rock. It was really hot so I went to get an ices and found Elchunu "really cool" kut hiding in there. There were no bats for the baseball game, so AB sHenker aka Abie Shenker went to Wuhan and got one but there was a leak and they had none left. More shoutouts to Avi Fiskus who didn't want any extra French toast. Eitan goldwicht came back, and is now the prime minister of galoozitstan. Why duz everyone ask if I'm related to dan the man ginsberg. It probably my caruncle. special shutouts to the blue team staff kickball team. Every one have a GREAT year. I am now in Harvrd studiing English for my PHD, so wait till you need next years articles. Until then what will you need? I don't know either.

Dear Chevra Parents,

Our counselors and staff have done a tremendous job, going beyond the call of duty to make sure that your son(s) have the best experience possible. They have truly made a difference in the lives of the campers. We feel it is a nice gesture to tip the counselors. Please take this letter as a suggestion, not a requirement. We recommend tipping your child's staff members directly. In addition to these staff members, the Rebbeim have worked immeasurably hard to ensure that your sons continue to learn Torah throughout the summer- we recommend tipping them as well.

Suggested Full Summer Tips:

Rebbeim: $50 - Counselors: $40 - Co-Counselors: $35 - Junior Counselors $25

Swikers: $40 Cash or make a check out to Camp Chevra and we will divide it amongst the Swikers counselors

The staff in BOLD are CAME FOR THE 2ND HALF. The rest stayed for the entire summer.
